

Study Program: GEOGRAPHY
Type and level of studies: Bachelor studies
Course name: GEOGRAPHICAL REGIONS OF SERBIA
Lecturer: Ivana Penjišević
Status: Compulsory subject
ECTS: 9
Attendance prerequisites:
Course aims
The course focuses on the synthesis of the natural and socio-economic phenomena in Serbia. The goal is to study and determine the distribution and quality of the natural phenomena and their mutual connection and conditionality with the socio-geographical contents of Serbia.
Course outcome
Course content
Theoretical part
The subject of study, tasks and methods of studying regional geography, Development of regional geography in the world and Serbia, The concept of region, Borders and the structure of the region, Hierarchy of regions, Geographical regionalization of Serbia, Pannonian macroregion, Vojvodina (Srem, Banat, Bačka), Peripannonian Serbia-northwestern Serbia (Serbian Posavina and Podrinje with Podgorina), Central Serbia (Šumadija, Veliko Pomoravlje, Zapadno Pomoravlje, Stig and Braničevo), Mountain/valley macro-region, Carpathian Serbia, Balkan Serbia, Vlasina and Krajište, South Pomoravlje, Toplica and Jablanica, Metohija, Kosovo with Drenica, Ibar-Kopaonik region, Starovlaško-raška highland.
Practical Part:
Introducing students to the subject and methods of research of regional geography, Making blank maps and elaboration on the geographical regions of Serbia through the preparation of seminar papers.
Literature
1. Марковић, Ђ.Ј., Павловић, М.(1994): Географске регије Србије и Црне Горе , Савремена администрација, Београд
Number of active classes	Lectures: 3	Practical classes: 3
Teaching methods
Lectures, exercises, consulting, term tests, term papers.
Assessment (maximum 100 points)
Course assignments	points	Final exam	points
Lectures	10	oral exam	50
Term tests	30
Term papers	10	.....	